The 2011 Winter National Board meetings are concluding today in Washington, DC. The South Carolina Wing is represented by the Commander, Col Jay Lindler. also in attendance is the Vice Commander, Lt Col Francis Smith. As details of the board meeting are finalized, you'll see reports here. On Thursday, SC Wing participated in CAP's annual Legislative Day on Capitol Hill. Col Lindler, Lt Col Smith, Lt Mark Eudy, Lt Crystall Eudy, and Cadets David, Adam, and Noah Eudy made the rounds and were able to visit the offices of every South Carolina representative and senator. In each case, we were welcomed and had the opportunity to engage in productive discussions with our elected representatives or their key staff members. We are hopeful that the process will conclude with each member of the South Carolina Delegation becoming a member of CAP's congressional squadron. Our thanks to Representatives Joe Wilson, Tim Scott, Trey Gowdy, James Clyburn, Mick Mulvaney, Jeff Duncan, Senators Jim DeMint and Lindsey Graham and their outstanding and courteous service to their constituents. Photos and a more complete report are forthcoming!
